ROOSEVELT MAN WANTED IN THIRD

Ringier Resolutions For The Administration

Hon. A. T. Siler Nominated to Succeed Himself as Railroad Commissioner.

CROWD WAS ALL FOR WILSON.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., April 24.—Hon. A. T. Siler, of Whitley county, was nominated to succeed himself as railroad commissioner by the Republicans of the Third district in convention here today. Judge H. Clay Faulkner, of Barbourville, was temporary and permanent chairman, and Hon. H. B. Brison, secretary.

The resolutions endorsed President Roosevelt in strong terms and also endorsed the candidacy of a man to succeed him, who would carry out his policies. No reference was made to the senatorial or gubernatorial race.

The convention was strictly for Wilson for the nomination for governor and he should have received endorsement had he desired.

TO GOOD SHEPHERD

Grace Emery Was Taken By Sheriff at Noon.

Preferring the Home of the Good Shepherd in Louisville to living with her father, Grace Emery, 16 years old, who ran away from home near Milliken's mill on the Benton road and rented rooms with immoral persons in Mechanicsburg, was taken to Louisville at noon in the patrol wagon in charge of Sheriff John Ogilvie to be placed in the Louisville institution. The girl when arrested was thin and hardly presentable. Chief Collins, Captain Harlan and others procured a hat, skirt and waist for her. Her father is an ox driver at Milliken's mill.

Rosa West, colored, who got three years for robbery, was taken to Frankfort to be placed in the woman's penitentiary.

WITH BULLET IN HIM.

Dog Runs From Officer Down Street of Paducah.

A "yaller", bob-tail dog, Detective William Baker and a big 45-caliber Colt's pistol were the cause of excitement in the vicinity of Fourth and Washington streets at 10:30 o'clock this morning. The dog had been running out of a yard and snapping at pedestrians. This morning he showed symptoms of hydrophobia and Detective Baker was sent out to exterminate him. One shot sent the dog to the ground, but he did not remain down long. With a jump he made by the back yard and Detective Baker was after him. The dog "double crossed" him and returned to the front yard, burst open the gate and fled down the street.

GO TO SMITHLAND.

Party of Paducahans Charter Boat For Trip.

Using a small gasoline launch as a means of conveyance, seven Paducah Odd Fellows will go to Smithland tonight to attend the institution of a new lodge of 40 members at that city. The institution will be in charge of Hon. A. W. Clements, of Morganfield, past grand master of the state lodge. Those who will go from Paducah are: Messrs. Harry Judd, G. Z. Umbaugh, C. G. Kelley, Frank S. Digel, J. O. Keebler, O. D. Anderson and A. T. McKinney. There will be a banquet and social held after the ceremonies.

COUNTY JUDGE WILL BUY LINDEN TREES FOR YARD

County Judge R. T. Lightfoot, whose heart and soul are in beautifying the court house yard, and not satisfied with the abundance of big trees, has ordered shipped from a nursery at Medina, O., 25 linden trees to be planted in the court house yard.

Not Sufficiently Specific.

More specific instructions, as to what kind of toy pistols are to be proscribed by the ordinance ordered, have been requested of the general council by the ordinance committee. It is understood that the ordinance will prohibit the sale of blank cartridge pistols.

WEATHER FORECAST.

FAIR.

Generally fair tonight and Thursday, rising temperature. Highest temperature yesterday, 61; lowest today, 40.

STRIKE SETTLEMENT.

Fernie, B. C., April 24.—Everything points to a settlement of the big coal strike today. No details of the conditions of adjustment are yet given out. Miners probably will resume work at the old scale pending a decision of an arbitration board.

BED FOLDED UP.

Hamilton, O., April 24.—Charles Hunter and wife were found unconscious in a folding bed this morning. The bed closed while the couple was asleep. Hunter may die. His wife will recover.

KIDNAPER CAUGHT.

Dover, Del., April 24.—Charged with murdering young Horace Marvin, who disappeared March 4, Frank Butler was arrested today. Although the warrant charges murder, officials do not believe he killed the boy. It is believed Butler knows the whereabouts of the child. The murder charge was in the hope of frightening him into confessing. Butler with much feeling declared his innocence.

SIGNALS MIXED.

Dwight, Ill., April 24.—In a collision between a coal train and a light engine on the Chicago & Alton near here today, Engineer Brown was killed and Fireman Taylor had both legs torn off. Three others were badly injured. A misunderstanding of signals was the cause.

AMERICAN WINS.

London, April 24.—Young Jay Gould, American champion tennis player, who finished second in last year's international championship contest, today won the first match for the trophy at Queen's club.

STEAMER BURNS.

New York, April 24.—The steamer Pioneer, plying between New York and Newark, was almost totally destroyed by fire today. The loss is $75,000. The crew escaped. Robert Darcie was ill in a bunk and was rescued through a port hole. Much cargo was thrown overboard. The remainder was burned.

RAIN GODSEND.

Boston, April 24.—Last night's rain was a godsend to thousands who are fighting woodland fires in various parts of New England. Reports this morning say the fires in most districts are now under control. The loss is heavy.

GRAIN MARKET.

Cincinnati, April 24.—Wheat, 79½; corn, 51; oats, 45½.

TWO GIRLS KILLED.

Millville, N. J., April 24.—Two girls are dead and one fatally injured as the result of a smokstack blowing down today and crashing through the roof of an apartment of a glass factory, following an electrical storm last night. Wind blowing 70 miles an hour this morning blew down the stack.

JOHN MITCHELL ILL.

Chicago, April 24.—President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers of America, is sick here. Mitchell arrived here a couple of days ago. On his way to Washington he was taken suddenly ill, apparently from kidney trouble. He passed a restless night. His wife was summoned to his bedside today.

TO REPUBLICANS ATTENTION TURNS

Interest Centering on Candidates For City Offices

As Soon As Democratic Primary Is Out of Way Sentiment Will Be Observed.

STRONG TICKET IS CERTAIN

With the Democratic city primary only one week away, attention is swerving slightly toward the Republican camp, where some murmurings and whispers denote a stir among the faithful. Announcement of the successful candidates before the Democratic primary will be the signal for Republican activity. A number of names are mentioned in connection with various offices, but no decided drift has been noted, as everyone seems to be holding his opinion in abeyance pending the result of the Democratic struggle.

A convention the latter part of May seems to be the general choice. It is clear from the tone of the party workers that they are agreed on at least two points: there is an excellent chance to win, and in order to realize the full advantage of that chance the strongest ticket ever nominated will have to be put forth. The feeling is accentuated by the manifest lethargy among Democrats and the lack of decision between the candidates before the primary.

Indications are that the candidates from mayor down will be sound, safe, conservative men with no fads and follies, but men who will appeal to the good judgment of all citizens.

Primary Preparations.

Chairman W. A. Berry, of the city Democratic executive committee, has called for bids for printing the ballots and other paraphernalia used in the primary May 2. The bids are to be in by tomorrow, allowing only eight days to complete the task.

DR. GRIFFITH'S PAPER WAS ABLY DISCUSSED

The McCracken County Medical society met last night at the office of Dr. B. B. Griffith and heard an excellent paper by Dr. Griffith on "Bright's Disease." The guest of honor was Dr. W. W. Richmond, of Clinton, Ky., counselor of the First District Medical association.

Mother Dies in Germany.

Messrs. E. Fels and Henry Loeb yesterday received a telegram announcing the death of their mother, Mrs. Rebecca Loeb, at Hechingen, Hohenzollern, Germany.

COUNTY ROADS IN GOOD CONDITION

Supervisor Johnson Inspects Several Districts and Reports Little Damage Done During Winter

MINOR REPAIRS THIS SUMMER.

Bert Johnson, county road supervisor, was in town today for the first time in several days. He is on his spring inspection of county roads and finds them in better shape than expected.

"I have inspected the Sixth, Seventh and Eighth districts, and part of the Fifth district," he stated, "and have about two-thirds of the latter to go over. I find roads in better condition than they were this time last spring, notwithstanding the severe weather of the last winter. This, I think, is due to the steady working we gave them constantly during the winter. I have no figures, but will say that the roads cost us under 25 per cent less last winter than the one before. Yet, we repaired many bridges that were not damaged by rain and high water, and worked roads not affected by the heavy rains."

The county has decided not to appropriate anything this year for road improvements, just enough money being set aside to keep the roads in shape. This means only $5,000 for roads, and the supervisor believes it will be sufficient.

THEY'RE OFF!

—Macaulay in New York World.

BOULEVARD WORK TO BE HASTENED

Property Owners and Traction Company Given Four Months in Which to Construct Curbs and Gutters of Concrete

PARK COMMISSIONERS' PLANS.

Nothing will be allowed to interfere with the work of improving Jefferson boulevard from Nineteenth street to the city limits, as was shown at the meeting of the ordinance committee of the general council last night, when City Engineer Washington, property owners, members of the park board and representatives of the traction company appeared. Terms agreed upon provide that the citizens and traction company may fill in and park seven feet on each side of the double tracks of the traction company, making a strip down the center 36 feet wide with 20 foot driveways on either side, flanked with broad grass plots and sidewalks. The citizens and company have four months after the passage of the ordinance in which to construct concrete curbs and gutters, half the cost to be assumed by the traction company. Then the park commissioners have 18 months in which to improve the 36 feet in the center. All the property owners have signed the agreement and haste will be made to do the work before any property changes hands. The boulevard will be extended to Gregory Heights.

THE UPBUILDING OF THE MEDICAL PROFESSION.

Dr. W. W. Richmond, of Clinton, district counselor of the State Medical society, addressed the local doctors in the McCracken County Medical society last night on the subject of "The Upbuilding of the Medical Profession." Dr. B. B. Griffith lectured on "Acute Nephritis," and Dr. Frank Boyd reported a case.

LOVER MURDERS SISTER OF GIRL

Fulton, Ky., April 24.—Will Sawyer last night fatally shot Minnie Strong, 17 years old. Sawyer was in love with the girl's sister, who rejected his proposal of marriage. Sawyer armed with a shotgun went to the house and shot the sister mistaking her for his sweetheart. He emptied both loads into the girl and escaped.

COAL OPERATORS CITED TO APPEAR

Interstate Commerce Commission Will Sit in Louisville, Friday, April 26, to Hear Testimony

JUDSON CLEMENTS PRESENT.

Citations to appear before the interstate commerce commission at Louisville, Friday, April 26, have been served upon coal mine operators in this city, and it is believed every operator in western Kentucky will be ordered before the commission during this sitting. The commission's agents have been studying the situation here ever since the trouble between the Hillside Coal company and the Illinois Central railroad developed in the Kentucky railroad commission. Judson C. Clements, is the commissioner, who will be in Louisville.

EYELID IS TORN BUT SIGHT SAVED

Verne Wade, the six-year-old son of Mrs. John A. McCollum, 523 Elizabeth street, was hurt yesterday afternoon by falling from a sea-saw and striking a nail. An ugly wound was torn in his left eye lid, which required several stitches. It was thought at first that his eye was injured, but the sight was not impaired. Dr. J. B. Acree dressed the wounds and today the little fellow is resting well.

ATTEND BANKERS' MEETING.

Ten Counties Represented At Cairo Yesterday.

C. A. McFarland, of the Farmers' and Mechanics' bank, of this city; and L. R. McAlpin, of the First National bank, and J. F. McCarthy, of the National State bank, of Metropolis; and H. W. Motfield, of the National bank of Brookport, attended the meeting of southern Illinois bankers at Cairo yesterday. This association is composed of the ten counties of Hamilton, Saline, Gallatin, Williamson, Jackson, Johnson, Hardin, Pope, Massac, Alexander, Pulaski, Union, Franklin, White, and is associated with the state organization.

Mr. McCarthy was a member of the nominating committee and Mr. Motfield is a member of executive committee.

TOWN IS COVERED WITH HOT ASHES

Valdivia in Chile Thrown Into Panic by Activity of Volcano Nearby—Capital of Important Province

CATTLE AND FARMS DESTROYED

Santiago, Chile, April 24.—Severe volcanic eruptions continue in the southern part of Chile. The town of Valdivia is covered with ashes and overhung with clouds. Valdivia is the capital of the province of Valdivia, in which the Puyehue volcano, which has been in eruption recently, is situated. The town has a population of about 10,000, and is on the Valdivia river. The volcanic eruption has destroyed many cattle and numerous farms. Deposits have been falling 150 miles from the volcano. A river is reported to have dried up and a lake is said to have disappeared, but there has been no loss of life reported up to the present.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRL IS BURNED IN LABORATORY

This morning while working in the laboratory at the High School Miss Irma Yeiser, daughter of Mayor D. A. Yeiser, was burned on her left arm. A Brunson burner was burning and as the flame is nearly invisible she reached for something and her sleeve ignited and before the fire could be extinguished had burned her arm.

CITY PRESENTS CLAIM IN REHKOPF MATTER

Colonel John Dorian, city treasurer, has tossed another nut to crack into the Rehkopf bankruptcy case, by putting in a claim in behalf of the city, for $399 taxes due from the estate. The claim probably will be allowed without protest as the payment of taxes on an estate does not cease because it is in the hands of a receiver.

GOVERNOR NAMES MEMPHIS BOARD

Memphis April 24.—Before leaving for Nashville last night Gov. M. R. Patterson announced the appointments of the new commission which will manage the municipal affairs of Memphis under the city charter. The commissioners are: John Joseph Williams, John T. Walsh, D. S. Rice, E. B. Le Master, Sidney M. Neely.

CADIZ TOBACCO FACTORY BURNED

Night Riders Up to Old Tricks in Trigg County

W. R. Wilson, An Independent Buyer, Is Made Victim of Twenty-Five Armed Men At Night.

HIS LOSS IS ABOUT $25,000

Cadiz Ky., April 24.—The tobacco factory of W. R. Wilson, 12 miles west of Cadiz, was destroyed by fire last night by a mob of about 25 mounted men, who fired several volleys. Wilson is an independent tobacco handler and is a buyer for Rice & Bogard of Clarksville, Tenn. His loss is about $1,500.

FRIENDLESS COLORED PEOPLE WILL HAVE HOME

Plans for the home for friendless colored people have reached the stage where the building is assured this summer and only a few hundred dollars remain to be raised for the purpose.

At a meeting of the directors and members of the Home of the Friendless Association for Colored People at the home of G. C. Burton, 622 South Ninth street, last night, it was stated that the association owns property in Rowlandtown and a modest four room structure will be erected on it this summer.

About a dozen members were present. Among the directors are the Rev. G. H. Burke, Mattie Oocy James May Holbrook and O. T. Holbrook.

NEW APARTMENT HOUSE WILL BE BUILT SOON.

Bids are being received by A. L. Lassiter, architect, for the construction of an apartment house at Seventh street and Kentucky avenue. The building is to cost $7,500 and will have four flats. The plans call for the latest improvements and conveniences. Mrs. Harry Tandy is having the apartment house built and the present cottage on the lot will be turned around to face on Seventh street.

TWO ROBBERIES.

Servants' Quarters of Seventh Street Residence Are Entered.

Between 5 and 6 o'clock this morning some one entered the servants' quarters in the rear of G. C. Crumbaugh's residence, Seventh and Madison streets, and stole $5, and secured $1.75 and a gold ring from the servants' quarters at the Roland residence, 411 North Seventh street. This is the second time in three weeks the Roland servants have been robbed.

MISS BERTHA LEMING MARRIES H. A. CUNNINGHAM.

News reached Paducah today of the marriage of Miss Bertha Leming, of Paducah to H. A. Cunningham, of St. Louis, who was until a few months ago in the insurance business in Paducah. A postal card was sent from New Orleans to a friend stating simply that she had been married and was in New Orleans.

NEW FIRE DEPARTMENT HORSES WILL BE BOUGHT

Two more horses will be purchased for the fire department. The joint police and fire committee of the general council at the meeting last night decided to acquiesce in the petition of Chief Woods. There are just sufficient horses now to haul the apparatus, and some of them need to be turned out.

Thomas Feezor's Infant.

The fifteen day old infant of Mr. Thomas Feezor, of Symsonia, Graves county, died this morning and was buried this afternoon near Symsonia.

New Horse for Oak Grove.

The joint cemetery committee of the general council decided last night to purchase a new horse for Oak Grove cemetery.

In an effort to catch a pair of scissors, which were falling from the operating table, Dr. J. T. Reddick struck point of one blade through his right hand this morning.

Operations Avoided

Hospitals in our great cities are sad places to visit. Three-fourths of the patients lying on those snow white beds are women and girls. Why should this be the case? Because they have neglected themselves.

Every one of these patients had plenty of warning in those dragging sensations, pain at the left or right of side, nervous exhaustion, pain in the small of the back; all of which are indications of an unhealthy condition. Do not drag along at home or in your place of employment until you are obliged to go to the hospital and submit to an examination and possible operation. Build up the feminine system, remove the derangements which have signified themselves by danger signals, and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, has saved many women from the hospital. Read the letters here published with the full consent of the writers, and see how they escaped operations by a faithful reliance on Mrs. Pinkham's advice and consistent treatment with

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Perry Byers, of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "I was told by my physician that I had a fibroid tumor and that I would have to be operated upon. I wrote to you for advice, which I followed carefully and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am not only cured of the tumor but other female troubles, and can do all my own work after eight years of suffering."

Miss Rose Moore, 307 W. 26th St., New York, writes:— "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured me of the very worst form of female trouble and I wish to express to you my deepest gratitude. I suffered intensely for two years so that I was unable to attend to my duties and was a burden to my family. I doctored and doctored with only temporary relief and constantly objecting to an operation which I was advised to undergo. I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; it cured me of the terrible trouble and I am now in better health than I have been for many years."

This and other such cases should encourage every woman to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before she submits to an operation.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located, and helpful advice sent absolutely free.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND, made from Native Roots and Herbs, complies with all conditions of the new Pure Food and Drugs Law, and is so guaranteed.

PRIZE BIGAMIST

HAS SEVENTEEN WIVES SCATTERED OVER COUNTRY.

Man Arrested At Fort Smith, Ark., Said To Have Made $150,000 By Marrying.

Marshall, Mich., April 24.—Dr. John Carver, alleged bigamist, who is said to have at least seventeen wives, was captured today at Fort Smith, Ark. Carver is charged with defrauding his wives out of $150,000.

The specific charge on which he was arrested was that of defrauding Mrs. Lola Davis of Battle Creek, out of $25,000. Carver married her on October 16, 1906, at Battle Creek. He went with her to New York, and they decided to buy a boarding house. He told his wife to go home and raise all the money she could on her property and forward him a draft, and he would make arrangements to have her come on in two weeks, after all details had been settled. He got the money, it is claimed, and disappeared.

Carver is wanted in Cincinnati, Pittsburg, Buffalo, Grand Rapids, Norfolk, Saginaw, and officers have been after him for three years. Sheriff Graham of this county obtained requisition papers and will return with the prisoner on Saturday. He has been representing himself as traveling secretary of the New York Jockey club.

Carver is a graduate of the Pittsburg Dental college, and is 40 years old. He is said to have procured his wives through matrimonial bureau.

SOCIETY IS HEADED BY MRS. MARY BAKER G. EDDY.

Branch of International Association Organized in This County By Leading People.

New York, April 24.—With Mrs. Baker Eddy as its American founder and Andrew Carnegie, Seth Low, Nicholas Murray Butler and other American publicists identified with the movement, the American branch of the Association for International Conciliation was organized today. Offices for the American department have been opened at 512 Fifth avenue and from there a Pan-American peace propaganda will be circulated. With international peace as a subject of its plea the association aims to secure workers in every national legislative hall in the cause of peace.

THEATRICAL NOTES

"The Bushranger."

A fair sized house greeted the Blunkall-Atwood company at The Kentucky last night and every one, who witnessed the production, proclaims a good play. Mr. Blunkall as Captain Swift, the "Bushranger", gave a smooth artistic portrayal of the young adventurer. Mr. Berch had an excellent part in Gardner and played it true to nature. Miss Lillian Atwood, as Mrs. Seabrook, gave a strong impersonation of the suffering mother. Miss Anna Kilduff, Miss Annetta Shaw, Mr. Hammett, Mr. Kirk and Mr. Searies gave fine support. Tonight "Sapho," the sensation of a year ago, will be played. Matinee Saturday at 2:30 o'clock.

SHOT CHICKEN THIEVES AND HEARD ONE CRY OUT.

Mr. John Weltlauf, of the Arcadia section, heard chicken thieves in his barn yard last night and shot at them with his musket loaded with heavy shot. He heard them cry out in pain, and believes he struck them. He immediately telephoned to police headquarters and warned the authorities to look out for them.

Female Discord

that is, discord in a woman's organs or functions, is simply another name for disease, but it expresses what perhaps you have never thought of, and that is, the jangling irritation of your nerves, when your organs are out of tune. Health is harmony. Every organ must do its work; every function must be natural, otherwise you need to tune you up again, and bring harmony into your discordant system. Cardui does this in a natural manner, because it is a natural remedy, for diseases peculiar to women. It acts directly on your organs, heals and cures them, regulates the functions, helps to make you well. Mrs. James Johnson, of Mt. Olive, Ark., writes: "I suffered great pain in my head and back from female trouble, and could not sit up, but one bottle of Cardui brought me precious relief." Try it.

WINE OF CARDUI Woman's Relief

MORE LICENSES NOT TO BE ISSUED

Until Paducah Has a Population of 45,000

Joint Ordinance Committee Orders Measure Providing For Sewer Connections.

NEW JEFFERSON BOULEVARD

At a meeting of the joint ordinance and license committees last evening an ordinance, regulating saloon licenses proposed by Councilman E. Lackey, was ordered drawn, the committee issuing implicit instructions regarding its drawing. Other ordinances and resolutions were ordered.

The provisions of the saloon license ordinance are that no more license be issued for saloons until the city has attained a population of 45,000 which will give one saloon for every 500 inhabitants. Saloons now licensed may be sold and the license transferred if the council ratifies it. The council may revoke any license if the proprietor is guilty of violation of the law.

A resolution, empowering the traction company and abutting property owners on Jefferson street from Fountain avenue to the city limits, to construct foot grass plots with curb and gutter on each side of the car tracks, the city not to be liable for any part of the cost, was ordered; also a resolution placing the control of the grass plots in the hands of the board of park commissioners.

An ordinance requiring property owners on both sides of Jefferson street and Broadway between Ninth and Eleventh streets to put in lateral sewers within thirty days from date of passage as the streets are to be paved this summer.

An ordinance ordering Kincaid avenue graded and gravelled two blocks west of 712 Bridge street, was ordered drafted.

Ordinances were ordered for concrete pavements, curb and gutters on Ohio from Third street to Thirteenth street; Tennessee street from Third

TWICE-TOLD TESTIMONY.

Paducah People Are Doing All They Can for Fellow Sufferers.

Paducah testimony has been published to prove the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills to others in Paducah who suffer from bad backs and kidney ills. Let any sufferer doubt that the cures made by Doan's Kidney Pills are thorough and lasting, we produce confirmed proof—statements from Paducah people saying that the cures they told of years ago were permanent. Here's a Paducah case:

J. W. Wootan, retired, of 1403 Burnett street, Paducah, Ky., says: "About seven years ago I gave a statement for publication telling of the great merits of Doan's Kidney Pills and what they had done for me after other remedies had failed to even help me. I was at that time a sufferer from backache and kidney trouble of years standing. My rest at night was greatly broken and my health was greatly run down. I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured them at DuBois & Co.'s drug store. I took them as directed and was greatly benefited. This was seven years ago and at this time, Feb. 18, 1907, I think even more highly of this remedy than I did then as it has stood the test. I most heartily endorse Doan's Kidney Pills."

street to Twelfth street; Fourth street from Clay street to Trimble street; Fifth street from Clay to Trimble street; Eighth street from Washington street to Tennessee street; grading and graveling; Thirteenth street from Flournoy street to Terrell street and Finley street from Seventh street to Eighth street.

The license committee filed away a petition from the Terrell distillers, asking permission to dispose of bottled in bond bottles of one-tenth of a pint. The firm has a gallon and quart license.

Another Year of Prosperity Assured According to Reports of Government

Washington, D. C., April 24.—Concurrent reports which have come into the treasury, department of agriculture, and census office all indicate that the United States is to enjoy at least one more year of extraordinary prosperity. By this it is not meant that there is any indication of a turn in the tide after the present year. It is impossible to forecast longer than that.

The indications are as stated, however, that there are to be business activity, good demand for labor, fair prices for money, and extraordinary prosperity for the people at large the country over. Some weeks ago there was grave anxiety among financiers in New York, and this was reflected by government officials in Washington.

The stock market is a poor barometer of real business conditions, but at the same time the disturbance in the money market was so general that many people began to believe the country was on the verge, not of a panic but of a receding wave, with a contracted demand, consequent overproduction, and ultimate hard times. The lamentations of the commercial Jeremiahs seem to have been based upon nothing more tangible than depression in the price of stocks, most of which were not worth much in the first place, coupled with inability of several big railroads to make new loans at profitable prices for the alleged improvements, the actual making of which no one could guarantee.

Reports All Favorable.
Now reports are all coming in the other way. The prospect is for good business and good crops, and in all likelihood the year 1907 will be added to the list of fruitful years in the history of America which began shortly after the inauguration of McKinley ten years ago, and which have continued from that time to this without the slightest indication of a turn of the tide.

About this time of year it is natural to expect alarming stories as to damage to fruit, wheat, and pretty much everything else. All the peaches are killed off every spring, but they are in the market just the same in the summer. Winter wheat generally has too much snow or too little, plowing is retarded by cold weather or early cereals are burned up by heat. Miscellaneous calamity stories of this kind, as applied to crops, orchards, and live stock interests, are good enough to influence futures for a day or two, but they do not come in contact with the government estimates.

Thus far indications are that there will be an enormous crop this year of almost everything. The reports thus far made to the department of agriculture are almost universally encouraging. There has been an increase in acreage all along the line, and, although the summer may bring out totally different conditions, the farmers, live stock men, and promoters of dairy and poultry products have a right to look forward to a prosperous year.

Farmers in Prosperous State.
The farmers generally have paid off their mortgages. Now they have money in banks and some of them are even making loans on city property, entirely reversing the old relations between city and country. They are in a position to stand a temporary setback. It would take two or three years of steady bad crops to put the farmers in the condition they were in twelve or fourteen years ago.

The situation in the farming community has been reflected in general business. Reports from all interior cities are alike. They show that the various flurries in the stock market resulting in a general reign of almost panic prices for speculation in securities, have not affected general business conditions in the slightest degree. The banks of Cincinnati, St. Louis, Milwaukee, and St. Paul send in reports which are similar to those received by the great financial institutions of Chicago.

There is plenty of money for legitimate business and always has been, even during times when rates were run up to the highest notch in Wall street. The banks in the Mississippi valley and throughout the south have been lending money at profit on gilt edged commercial paper, on cotton, sugar, wheat, corn, hogs, and cattle. There has been no flurry up or down in business. The even range or continued prosperity has been extraordinary.

Transportation Lines Inadequate.
Up to the present times business has not expanded as much as it might have done if it had had more facilities. The railroads have been unable to handle freight offered to them. Retail merchants have been unable to secure supplies from their jobbers in time to meet the constantly increasing demand, and farmers during the fall and winter have been unable to market their crops as rapidly as they would have liked to do. It has been hard to get coal out on the prairie, and it has been almost as hard to get wheat from the prairies to the seaboard.

There has been a general inability in every line of business, to do as much as the demand would have justified. Stores in cities have proved to be too small for the increased volume of business, many firms have been unable to secure enough delivery wagons, there has been congestion in express business, and railroads are clogged beyond the possibility of their getting out from under at any time in the immediate future.

Nothing but business depression will relieve the transportation lines at the present time. They cannot make enough new improvements in the next two or three years to put their roads where they ought to be today. If prosperity continues in this country the railroads will be almost as far behind the demand on their resources after they have spent two or three billions of dollars as they are today.

PERSIAN PHYSICIAN.

Mirza Tago Khan Is With Pawnee Bill Show.

Mirza Tago Khan is the physician of the Persians with the Pawnee Bill show, which will be here on April 26. He accompanied them from their far-off eastern homes. He is an old man, with a long beard, dyed a fiery red and wears the drab skullcap of his country. His outer garment is of sheep-skin, fitting loosely over a long tunic of blue cotton. The lower part of his legs are bare and almost as dark in color as the women's socks which cover his feet. His shoes are left outside the door of a patient's house and his tread becomes as noiseless as that of a cat. The natives have great faith in Mirza Tago Khan. They fear American diseases and call for his services at every unwonted physical sensation. He apparently relies most conspicuously upon the aid of Allah, whom he invokes at every step of his treatment. He has a decided tendency to blood-letting and a delight in strong medicines. Pawnee Bill was walking about his encampment the other morning when he encountered splash after splash of crimson. Inquiring the cause, he learned that the Persian medicine man had been making his rounds. By blood-letting, he had treated a cold, a head-ache and a pain in the stomach.

Dies at Home Plate.

Montezuma, Ia., April 24.—Choked by a piece of candy, Orrle McWilliams died today while engaged in a game of ball. An exciting contest was in progress and McWilliams was catching with a gumdrop in his mouth. The ball was thrown to him to shut out a home run by a man on third. McWilliams caught the ball but immediately fell to the ground in a fit of strangulation. Help was summoned, but the boy was dead before physicians could reach his side.

Arsenal Fire Is Under Control.

Toulon, April 23.—Fire in the arsenal here was brought under control today after burning over a large tract of ground, causing damage which will reach many millions of francs. All buildings for 300 yards were burned, including torpedo shops. For a time fire threatened the military barracks.

Business of the gondollers of Venice is being invaded by women and the men are organizing unions to drive them out.

PAWNEE BILL'S Historic Wild West And Great Far East WILL EXHIBIT HERE ON FRIDAY

THE "ONCE IN A LIFETIME" SHOW.

Is it not reasonable to assume that, with the experience gained and the capital accumulated in more than a score of years of ever-increasing success, Pawnee Bill is able to create and maintain a show vastly superior to anything the past has yielded? Is it not natural and human that, having firmly established the esteem, confidence and respect of the world's audience and assembled a personal competency, it should become his eager ambition to produce not merely a good, but the best, show ever known—the legitimate amusement sensation of the day?

This is the situation as it exists today with respect to this city, and Pawnee Bill's Historic Wild West and Great Far East its appearance here is a piece of great good fortune to you and an auspicious event in municipal history. If you are not acquainted with it, it will be introduced to you under most fortunate circumstances. Those who know it of old will find a delightful renewal of friendship, although hardly recognizing the wonderful creation now developed from the humble pioneer show of its kind. It has progressed in leaps and bounds and risen to heights of world fame. It is mountain high above the ordinary, conventional, every-day routine tented organization. It is unanimously conceded show par excellence. It is so far above anything you have ever seen, there is nothing to compare with it.

Its triumphant conquest of New York City is fresh in your minds. It broke all records in patronage, popularity and duration of stay in the Eastern metropolis' great public play ground, Brighton Beach. For six weeks it and crowds were inseparable. Equally unparalleled were the honors and homage accorded it abroad, where it demonstrated to astonished monarchs and millions the supremacy of America's tented amusements. Foreign rivals quickly yielded, pre-eminence before its magnitude and genius and every American's pride was stimulated by the spectacle. Its infinite superiority to anything of its kind in this country is known to all well-informed persons.

It is difficult to speak of Pawnee Bill's present show in enthusiastic terms without passing the bounds of self-restraint. You who see it will appreciate the difficulty of doing it justice by word.

"The Great Train Robbery," for instance, is doubtless familiar to you by enthusiastic report and hearsay. It was conceived by Mr. Arthur Voegtlin, the distinguished projector of the New York Hippodrome spectacles, and produced last summer at Luna Park, New York City. Instantly it became the one Supreme, Catapultic Sensation of Theatrics. Never had anything remotely approaching it been even suggested in the extravagant flights and vagaries of amusement geniuses. It employed a Real Engine and Passenger Train, and in two scenes, depicted a Western hold-up and its sequel so graphically that audiences were fairly spellbound with amazement and excitement. During its run of 747 performances, it appropriated all the honors and all the patronage of the famous showground. With the closing of the season, a horde of showmen sought it for the "road." Mr. Voegtlin was obdurate in his refusals. He would trust his great creation to none of them, fearing an inadequate production. Instead, he communicated with Pawnee Bill, the one traveling amusement purveyor in whose ability and integrity he had full confidence.

"The Great Train Robbery" is thus Pawnee Bill's exclusive, culminating feature. No other traveling enterprise can use the name or copy the action. It is thoroughly protected by copyright. It needs no sponsor and no vindication. It is the established "Once-in-a-Lifetime" Show, but only one of the myriad attractions under Pawnee Bill's tents. Agents have pierced the very heart of Africa—"the Dark Continent"—to acquaint you intimately and accurately with savage life and customs. That gorgeous dreamland, India, and the other nations skirting the Red and Indian and Mediterranean Seas, have been ransacked for magic and mysteries and marvels. Australia, South America and Africa have been preyed upon.

Your senses are held captive as you witness the performances of these curious, weird and unbelievable peoples. The romantic, adventurous West is blended with all. Cowboys, cowgirls, American Indians, vaqueros, bucking broncos, scouts, soldiers and all the other figures and features of early Western civilization seem to fill the great tented enclosures with fresh mountain breeze and prairie air. Every varied number exhibits the highest skill and is potent with the wine of life and vigor.

It will do you good. It does everybody good. Pawnee Bill Stakes His Reputation Upon It. It is as perfect and big a show as humanly possible. It is distinctively original and independently individual. It differs from all others. It covers a field otherwise untouched. It will provide the treat of your lifetime. Its substantiality and solidity is unequalled and unquestioned. And your delight will be enhanced during all the three hours of inspiring, bewildering, joy-restoring educational entertainment, by physical comforts and conveniences which no other arrangement of tents and seats ever offered, and the polite attentions heretofore unfamiliar in circus practice.

There will be two daily performances, rain or shine, under canvas that gives shelter from all elements. A street parade of excellent magnitude and magnificence, led by Pawnee Bill will inaugurate the gala day, traversing the principal streets in the forenoon. Admission 50 cents. Reserved seats at McPherson's pharmacy.

Daily Thought.

"Half the victories of this life come from knowing when to strike."

THE SITUATION.

Yerkes resigned the commission of internal revenue, and that gave a Lexington paper an opportunity to dream of Bradley domination with Wilson as governor and W. O. Bradley as United States senator. The Somerset Republican has started a boom for Justice Harlan for senator. Louisville papers are avowing a lack of harmony in Republican ranks, because one county did not endorse Augustus E. Wilson, and somebody said that Judge William Holt may be a candidate for governor. Why should a county thus early endorse Mr. Wilson and bind its delegates so as to prevent their exercising reasonable discretion in the interest of the party? Why has not Judge Holt as much right as Mr. Wilson to aspire to the honor? We are for either of them that satisfies the most elements and individuals of the party.

As for the senatorial talk, it is only Democratic smoke intended to befog Republican harmony. We have no objection to Governor Bradley seeking the senatorship, and we should be perfectly satisfied with Justice Harlan in the senate. We are sure either would be a distinct gain for Kentucky; but why, let us inquire, should a Republican paper seek to complicate the situation by trying a senatorial candidate to the tail of Wilson's or anybody's political kite? The first duty of the party is to select a governor and elect a legislature, but keep the two separate and apart. We have no idea that former Governor Bradley is associating his aspirations with Mr. Wilson's candidacy. He is too good a party man for that.

THE GERRYMANDER.

Let us stop talking about senatorial candidates and turn our attention to the legislature itself a bit. Kentucky Republicans, and through their initiative the citizens of the commonwealth, have just won a signal victory in the courts of this state by having the last gerrymander declared unconstitutional. There is yet more work to be done in winning our way to political liberty. The last gerrymander was a small thing compared with the one preceding it, when the whole state was redistricted for the obvious and undisputed purpose of increasing and making permanent the Democratic majority in the legislature. If we would have a Republican representative in the United States senate, we must first nullify this iniquitous gerrymander. The state might go overwhelmingly Republican, but the legislature would remain Democratic in the face of popular will, because the Democratic politicians had seen to it.

Laws enacted by the legislature chosen under the gerrymander will not be affected by an adverse decision of the court of appeals, but the general assembly would be compelled to redistrict the state and do justice to its constituency. In this way alone lies the possibility of Republicans securing the fruits of victory when they capture the state. It will require money to prosecute these suits. Patriots have spent hundreds of dollars out of their own pockets and they are flushed with one victory. Western Kentucky Republicans should exhibit their party spirit by contributing to this fund.

Government by "unanimous consent" has been re-established in Honduras. It is usually unanimous in those Central American states, because the government is never established until unanimity is secured by the simple process of eradicating the minority.

That Hopkinsville colored youth, who, driven insane by excessive cigarette smoking, imagines he is a locomotive, exhibits method in his madness. Nothing but a locomotive ever accomplished anything by smoking.

Public gambling has been stopped in Cairo by order of the mayor. Cairo is not far behind Goldfield, Nev., in public morals. Goldfield stopped gambling six weeks ago.

New York may boast of her masters of high finance, but Pittsburgh and San Francisco have developed some masters of low finance that rank well.

'Squire Liggett, of Metropolis, is assuming vast responsibilities as father of the destinies of western Kentucky.

Announcement of a rise in the price of peanuts is significant just on the approach of the circus season.

We don't care which railroad beats into Metropolis, just so it is forced to hurry to beat the other two.

Saloon men will have to arrange among themselves, which 500 they are to have.

SPIRITUAL ANTIQUES.

That Fool Experts Are Prepared For American Tourists.

Washington, April 23.—A timely warning which all Americans who are planning European trips this spring and summer can heed with profit, has reached the state department in an official report from Consul McNally at Liege, Belgium. In anticipation of the usual influx of American tourists dealers in antiques with itching palms for easy money, Consul McNally reports, are putting the finishing touches to "ancient creations" which are to be offered at the usual sacrifice price. "In anticipation of a good season, the manufacturers of antiques have been kept busy," writes Consul McNally. "The aging season is now on, and when the time comes for placing the articles on sale the ancient appearance will be perfect. A great majority of dealers in antiques have in stock a supply of cheap imitations to be unloaded on the ignorant visitor who wishes to carry home a souvenir of the old world."

MILLION FOR EDUCATION OF THE COLORED PEOPLE.

Philadelphia, April 24.—A gift of $1,000,000 for the establishment of a fund for rudimentary schools for southern negroes was announced here today. The donor is Miss Anna T. Jeans, a Quakeress of this city. Booker T. Washington, head of Tuskegee Institute, and Hollis Burke Prizell, president of the Hampton Normal and Industrial Institute, are named as trustees of the fund, but neither of the institutions they represent will share in the gift.

TAUGHT FRENCH TO PLAY POKER

Death of Sam Robb Ireland Recalls Story

Owensboro Local Option People Will Test County Writ Proposition in Courts.

CIGARETTES CAUSE INSANITY

Ashland, Ky., April 24.—Sam Robb Ireland is dead, and around his memory hangs the story of a career such as few men live through even to the age of 35 years. Sam Robb Ireland, son of the late Judge W. C. Ireland, of this city, was several years ago through his ardent desire for adventure and his magnificent physique and fine mind, appointed to the body guard of President McKinley, and was the first man to capture Czolgoz, the assassin of the third of the country's martyred chief executives.

The news of his death, at his home in Washington, came suddenly to his friends and relatives in this city, and now stories are being told of his career. It was this man who originated the unique campaign button "Sixteen to One" representing the sixteen petaled daisy with yellow center, and it was he who was forced to leave France while in the United States secret service, on a charge of trimming the Frenchmen, after having taught them how to play poker. This affair at the time almost started international difficulties, but was settled by the powers behind the throne in some manner.

He was a lawyer and possessed of one of the most brilliant as well as humorous minds in Northern Kentucky. The body of Mr. Ireland will be brought here tomorrow for burial by the side of his parents, who sleep in Ashland cemetery. The funeral will take place Thursday.

County Unit Test.

Owensboro, Ky., April 24.—In spite of the majority of 442 against prohibition in the city of Owensboro, there is a question in some quarters as to whether Owensboro went "wet" or "dry" in Saturday's local option election. It was generally understood today, and specifically stated by some of their numbers, that the prohibition people will make an attempt to have the court hold that the licensing of saloons in Owensboro is prohibited by the result of the election in the county as a whole.

Thinks He Is Engine.

Hopkinsville, Ky., April 24.—Charles Roach, a colored boy sixteen years old, was adjudged a lunatic and was sent to the Western Kentucky asylum for the insane. The excessive use of cigarettes is said to be the cause of the giving away of the boy's mind. He harbored the delusion that he was a railroad locomotive and would whistle, puff and blow like an engine, his arms meanwhile fulfilling the duties of piston rods. He also thought at times he was a frog and would roll and bat his eyes and make a noise like a bull frog. Roach was in a playful humor during his trial, and when the jury was leaving the room created some excitement by attempting to trip the jurors as they passed him.

It Is Decided He Shall Reply to Foraker.

Washington, D. C., April 24.—Although official announcement to the effect is being held back, it is definitely known that Secretary Taft has taken up the gauge of battle thrown down in Ohio by Senator Foraker for control of the delegates from that state to the next Republican national convention. Secretary Taft spent some time with the president today, and the Ohio situation was discussed. At an early date Secretary Taft will take the stump in Ohio in advocacy of the policies which President Roosevelt has urged with so much earnestness and at times with spectacular effect.

STUDIES SYSTEM OF MANUAL BLOCK

Superintendent of Maine Railroad in City

Interested in This District and Surprised At Commercial Conditions Here.

WILL RECOMMEND ADOPTION

W. K. Hallett, general superintendent of the Bangor and Aroostook railroad of Bangor, Maine, came to Paducah to inspect the manual block system on the Paducah district of the Illinois Central, and not a higher tribute could be paid southern railroaders and their system, than that paid by Superintendent Hallett in his visit.

"I came to the Paducah district of the Illinois Central especially to inspect the methods of handling trains," Superintendent Hallett stated. "The Railway Age" spoke so highly of the Illinois Central's excellent block system that I thought it the best for my purpose. In Maine we have conditions about the same as you have between Paducah and Central City and while down here I went as far south as New Orleans and will doubtless inspect other branches of the road but the Paducah district is what I want to see."

Superintendent Hallett left this morning in company with Trainmaster L. E. McCabe and will be taken as far as Central City, where the Paducah district ends. Mr. McCabe will act as instructor.

"Instead of coal, which seems to be the principal freight hauled over this district," Superintendent Hallett continued, "we haul lumber and potatoes. In Aroostook county last year we hauled its entire output of potatoes, which amounted to 8,000,000 bushels."

"This year we expect again to handle fully that many, and as to lumber, we will not fall short of 550,000 tons. The reason the Paducah district of the Illinois Central is so particularly an example beneficial to me is the grades. Our country is as hilly as it is between Paducah and Central City. It affords me an opportunity to study the system, the way trains are handled over the hills, and I have picked up a great deal of information since I came south."

Superintendent Hallett was surprised to see the long trains of mixed freight, coal and lumber hauled through Paducah; and at the size of the yards and the general progress of Paducah as a city. He will go to Chicago tonight and from there to recommend the same manual block system used by the Illinois Central for his own road.

Captain Jack Mortland, of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis, who was brought here two months ago from Lexington, Tenn., suffering from paralysis, has returned to Lexington, but is not entirely well. His memory seems bad, but physicians say he will recover.

John T. Donovan, agent for the Illinois Central, has returned from a business trip to Memphis.

HEALTH AND HAPPINESS.

"Life consists now in living, but in enjoying health."

We could all enjoy health if we conformed to Nature's simple laws. Disease is merely a result of the non-observance of those laws, either by negligence, accident or ignorance. These reasons are, as a rule, of little consequence after disease becomes manifest and properly diagnosed. It is the nature of the treatment and the results obtained that concern you.

Nature is the ever present factor in the cure of disease. The Osteopath appreciates this fact, and uses all means that are natural, recognizing and using diet, air, water, exercise and other hygienic measures as natural assistants to scientific manipulations to secure normality to any and all structure disturbances.

I should be pleased to refer you, at any time, to Paducah people you know well who can attest to what Osteopathy has done for them in cases of rheumatism, asthma, neuralgia, nervousness, stomach, liver, and bowel troubles, eczema, sick headaches, la grippe conditions, malaria, lumbago, disturbed blood conditions.

If you are ill you owe it to yourself to investigate Osteopathy.

Spring was felt for the first time in several weeks on the river today and the listlessness that the spring atmosphere gives was evident. The river has come to a stand at 16.5 but there is nothing in sight to hold it there. On April 24 last year the stage was 25.6. Business at the wharf was good today.

The City of Memphis left today for St. Louis as there is no further use for the big packet here. If the sale of the Memphis is made she will be handled in St. Louis by the headquarters of the line.

The Buttrick will arrive tonight from Nashville and leave Thursday at noon for Clarksville.

The Island Queen will arrive from the upper Ohio river Thursday afternoon in time to carry out the Central Labor Union excursion on the evening of that day. Friday the Island Queen will go to Shawneetown, Ill., to carry out an excursion.

Sunday the J. S. excursion steamer will carry an excursion to Smithland, while the W. W. will leave Monday for St. Louis to enter the season.

The Dick Fowler will make special arrangements for handling the crowds that will go down to Metropolis Friday for the interstate Odd Fellows convention. The George Cowling is the official boat of the convention making four trips Friday between Paducah and Metropolis.

If the river will hold up, the Chattanooga packets will be in clover as each trip the freight business grows larger. The Joe Wheeler left at 10 o'clock this morning for Chattanooga with all the freight a packet of that size could carry.

The City of Salt Lake will arrive tonight from the Tennessee river on the return trip to St. Louis.

Business was rushing yesterday for the John S. Hopkins, which arrived late yesterday afternoon and left at 10 o'clock last night.

Little more than inconvenience resulted from the broken cylinder on the Clyde and that packet will leave this evening at 6 o'clock for the Tennessee river on time.

The Scotia returned from Joppa last night and is preparing to go to the Tennessee river after logs or lumber. Nearly all of the towboats are in now.

The Bettie Owen is now making a trip to Brookport in the morning at 7 o'clock. The 7 o'clock trip from erly was to the Illinois side opposite Paducah.

Official Forecasts.

The Ohio from Evansville to Cairo not much change during the next 24 hours.

The Tennessee from Florence to below Johnsonville, will probably rise slightly during the next 24 hours. The Mississippi from below St. Louis to Cairo, and the Wabash at Mt. Carmel, will not change much during the next 24 hours.

Many a man has failed in life because he was afraid of such a little thing as a sneer.

TRIMBLE STREET.

One of the prettiest homes on Trimble street. Front rooms finished in hard wood. Large hall full length of house, bath, all conveniently arranged. One of the best offers on the street at the price, $2,000. H. C. Hollins, Real Estate and Rentals, Trueheart Building.

SOUTH FIFTH STREET.

Large building on South Fifth that may be bought at a very low price and converted into an apartment house, the purchaser realizing handsomely. Inquire particularly. H. C. Hollins, Real Estate and Rentals, Trueheart Bldg.

A Little Parable.

I made the cross myself whose weight

Was later laid on me.

This thought is torture as I toll

Up life's steep Calvary.

To think mine own hands drove the nails!

I sang a merry song,

And chose the heaviest wood I had

To build it firm and strong.

If I had guessed—if I had dreamed

Its weight was meant for me,

I should have made a lighter cross

To bear up Calvary!

—Anne Reeve Aldrich.

JES' MAD

EMBERS EAVES FIRED AND NOW IS HELD TO GRAND JURY.

Two Patrolmen Say He Shot At Them
When He Stubbed His Toe
On Street.

Embers Eaves, colored, residing on North Ninth street, beyond Burnett street, was held over to the grand jury for malicious shooting this morning in police court. He is charged with shooting at Roundsmen Emil Gourieux and Patrolmen Alexander and Hill Sunday morning at Ninth and Burnett streets. "I stumbled and fell, and hurt my toe," was the statement he made, "and when I got up was mad. I just took out my pistol and fired into the air." Patrolmen Alexander and Hill testified that the bullet went between them, as they could distinctly hear it sing.

Jim (Chalk) Grogan was fined $25 and costs for being drunk and disorderly. He was originally arrested for converting a watch belonging to Henry Hostetter, a relative, to his drunk and disorderly. He was originally used. Grogan claimed he was drunk and did not remember, and Hostetter refused to prosecute for felony.

INCREASE SCALE IS INSTRUCTION

Joint Protective Board of I. C.
Boilermakers Meet

Blacksmiths Want Six Cents Raise
and Helpers Want One and One-Half Cents.

QUICK RUN OF DEPARTMENT.

The joint protective board of the Boilermakers' union of the Illinois Central is in session with higher mechanical department officials of the road today at Chicago to arrange a new scale and code of rules for the ensuing year. This will prove one of the most interesting and important conferences held this year, and the outcome is watched with eagerness.

Mr. G. E. Barrett, representing blacksmiths, and Mr. G. E. Ballowe, representing blacksmith helpers,
from Paducah shops, are in attendance, leaving Paducah last night at 6:15 o'clock. They went instructed for an increase in the scale from $4 to 40 cents the hour for blacksmiths and from 18 1/2 to 20 cents the hour for helpers.

Record Run at Shops.

One of the quickest runs on record was made by the day fire department of the Illinois Central shops yesterday at noon. Five sharp blasts of the shop whistle brought members to their feet from under box cars, engines, boiler tanks and even from inside engine boilers. It was an alarm of fire at the round house.
The hand hose reel was rushed to the scene as if by magic the entire department coming from every direction, gathered about the fire. A rapidly growing flame was eating its way into the roof of the round house at a smoke "jack." An engine had been run into the round house not exactly under the jack, and the heat from the smoke stack had ignited the wood work around it. From the time the alarm was given until the fire was out but four minutes elapsed.
The damage was trivial.

Messrs. C. N. Marquess and George Richardson, well known Illinois Central car repairers, are ill
and unable to be on duty.

Mr. L. W. Splers, chief clerk in the general yardmaster's office of the local Illinois Central, returned last night from Alton, Ill., where he had been on a week's visit, and reported for work this morning.

Pawnee Bill's wild west shows will come to Paducah on the 26th, and already engine foremen and yard men are working hard to prepare

PUTS IT ALL OVER "HONEY."

Sullivan Given Decision at End of Twenty Fast Rounds.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 24.—Mike
"Twin" Sullivan, was given the decision over "Honey" Melody at the end of the 20 fast rounds last night.
At all stages Sullivan showed unmistakable superiority and outgeneraled Melody at infighting. Melody's tactics were confined to rushes, generally ending in clinches, where Sullivan used right uppercuts and short hard jabs to the face with telling effect.
Melody took a world of punishment and although at several stages of the fight seemed staggered by stiff rights to his face came back lighting.

Old People

NEED VINOL

it strengthens and vitalizes

With old age comes feebleness and loss of power; the organs act more slowly and less effectively; the blood is thin, sluggish and watery; digestion is weak and food is not assimilated as it used to be.

Vinol repairs worn tissues and checks the natural decline. It tones up the digestive organs, aids assimilation, makes rich, red blood, and strengthens every organ in the body.
In its natural manner Vinol replaces weakness with strength.

Vinol contains all the medicinal elements of cod liver oil in a concentrated form, taken from fresh cods' livers, the useless oil eliminated and tonic iron added.

It is because we know so well of what Vinol is made that we offer to return money if it fails to benefit.

W. B. McPherson, Druggist.

NOTE.—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Paducah, it is now for sale at the leading drug store in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency in your town.

GRAVES COUNTY NEWS.

Mayfield, Ky., April 24.—Miss
Vada Black, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
R. O. Black living five miles south of Farmington, celebrated her eightteenth birthday last Sunday. Those present were: Misses Sula Brown, Julia Arnett, Mertie Brown, Nellie Harrison, Ruth Howard, Lexie Boyd
and Mrs. Oscar Morris; Messrs. J. J.
Guthrie, her grandfather; Hollis
Howard, Nat Harris, Pat Black, Coleman Arnet, Clifton Howard, Willie Morris Harry Boyd, Oscar Morris and V. C. Kenney.

J. O. Perry, of Illinois, is in the city. He is a brother of the late Pon Perry and is engaged in the railroad business. He has been in Paducah for the past few years but formerly lived in Texas. He was born and raised in Mayfield.

The marriage of Mr. Robert Taylor and Miss Novella Harris will take place tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. J. N. Harris.
Miss Harris is the charming daughter of Mr. J. N. Harris and Mr. Taylor is the son of Mrs. Margaret Taylor and a brother of Mrs. Claude Parkhill, of this city. They will re-

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drouth are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of today; although a citizen of Codel, Earl Shamburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by coughing night and day, and could find no relief till I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." The safest and most reliable cough and cold cure and lung and throat healer ever discovered. Guaranteed by all druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

DR. THOMPSON IN DEMAND.

Forced To Decline Engagement At Sturgis.

The Rev. Calvin M. Thompson, pastor of the First Baptist church, is much in demand by colleges, and on account of having his program "full up", was forced to decline with regret an invitation to preach the baccalaureate sermon for the Ohio Valley college at Sturgis, on May 19.
Dr. Thompson will preach the baccalaureate sermon at the Clinton college the last week in May, and June 2 will preach the baccalaureate sermon for the Hall-Mooney Institute at Martin, Tenn. He has numerous engagements to deliver addresses at lodge meetings.

Out of Sight.

"Out of sight, out of mind," is an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Piles too and chilblains disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Nursing Mothers and Over-burdened Women

In all stations of life, whose vigor and vitality may have been undermined and broken down by over-work, exacting social duties, the too frequent bearing of children, or other causes, will find in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the most potent, invigorating restorative strength-giver ever devised for their special benefit. Nursing mothers will find it especially valuable in sustaining their strength and promoting an abundant nourishment for the child. Expectant mothers too will find it a precious remedy to prepare the system for baby's coming and rendering the ordeal comparatively painless. It can do no harm in any state, or condition of the female system.

Delicate nervous, weak women, who suffer from frequent headaches, back-ache, dragging-down distress low down in the abdomen, or from painful or irregular monthly periods, gnawing or distressed sensation in stomach, dizzy or faint spells, see imaginary specks or spots floating before eyes, have disagreeable, peevish catarrhal discharges, or other version or retro-version or other displacements of womanly organs from place of parts will, whether they experience many or only a few of the above symptoms, find relief and a permanent cure by using faithfully and fairly persistently Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This world-famous specific for woman's weakness and peculiar ailments is a pure glyceric extract of the choicest native medicinal roots without a drop of alcohol in its make-up. All its ingredients are printed in plain English on its bottle wrapper and attested under oath. Dr. Pierce thus invites the fullest investigation of his formula, knowing that it will be found to contain only the best agents known to the most advanced medical science of all the different schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments.

If you want to know more about the composition and professional endorsement of the "Favorite Prescription," send postal card request to Dr. R. C. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his free booklet treating of same.

You can't afford to accept as a substitute for this remedy of known composition, a secret nostrum of unknown composition. Don't do it.

CHAPTER XVII.

THERE was something strange about Andrew's manner as he moved up to Duncombe's side. The latter, who was in curiously high spirits, talked incessantly for several minutes. Then he came to a dead stop. He was aware that his friend was not listening.

"What is the matter with you, old chap?" he asked abruptly. "You are positively glum."

Andrew Pelham shook his head. "Nothing much," he said.

"Rubbish! What is it?"

Andrew dropped his voice almost to a whisper. The words came hoarsely. He seemed scarcely master of himself.

"The girl's voice tortures me," he declared. "It doesn't seem possible that there can be two—so much alike. And then Spencer's telegram. What does it mean?"

"Be reasonable, old fellow," Duncombe answered. "You knew Phyllis Poynton well. Do you believe that she would be content to masquerade under a false name, invent a father, be received here—have known how—and meet you, an old friend, as a stranger? The thing's absurd, isn't it?"

"Granted. But what about Spencer's telegram?"

"It is an enigma, of course. We can only wait for his solution. I have wired him the information he asked for. In the meantime—"

"Well, in the meantime?"

"There is nothing to be gained by framing absurd hypotheses. I don't mind telling you, Andrew, that I find Miss Fielding the most delightful girl I ever met in my life."

"Tell me exactly, George, how she compares with the photograph you have of Phyllis Poynton."

Duncombe sipped his wine slowly. "She is very like it," he said, "and yet there are differences. She is certainly a little thinner and taller. The features are similar, but the hair is quite differently arranged. I should say that Miss Fielding is two or three years older than Phyllis Poynton, and she has the air of having traveled and been about more."

"A few months of events," Andrew murmured, "might account for all those differences."

Duncombe laughed as he followed his host's lead and rose.

"Get that magnet out of your brain, Andrew," he exclaimed, "as quickly as possible. Will you take my arm? Mind the corner."

They found the drawing room almost deserted. Lord Runtun raised his eyebrows and looked around.

"I bet those women have collared the billiard table," he remarked. "Come along, you fellows."

They recrossed the hall and entered the billiard room. Lady Runtun was playing with the lord lieutenant's wife,

Miss Fielding and the baron were still together.

the Countess of Appleton. The others were all sitting about either on the lounge or in the winter garden beyond. Miss Fielding was standing on the threshold, and Duncombe advanced eagerly toward her. On the way, however, he was buttonholed by an acquaintance; the master of the house had something to say to him afterward about one of his covers. When he was free Miss Fielding had disappeared. He made his way into the winter garden, only to find her sitting in a secluded corner with the baron. She looked up at his entrance, but made no sign. Duncombe reluctantly re-entered the billiard room and was captured by his host for a rubber of bridge.

The rubber was a long one. Duncombe played badly and lost his money. Declining to cut in again, he returned to the winter garden. Miss Fielding and the baron were still together, only now they had pushed their chairs a little farther back and were apparently engaged in a very confidential conversation. Duncombe turned on his heel and re-entered the billiard room.

It was not until the party broke up that he found a chance of speaking to her. He was sensible at once of a change in her manner. She would have passed him with a little nod, but he barred the way.

"You have treated me shockingly," he declared, with a smile which was a little forced. "You promised to let me show you the winter garden."

"Did I?" she answered. "I am so sorry. I must have forgotten all about it. The baron has been entertaining me delightfully. Good night."

He half stood aside.

"I haven't by any chance offended you, have I?" he asked in a low tone.

She raised her eyebrows.

"Certainly not," she answered. "Excuse me, won't you? I want to speak to Lady Runtun before she goes upstairs."

Duncombe stood on one side and let her pass, with a stiff bow. As he raised his eyes he saw that Mr. Fielding was standing within a few feet of him, smoking a cigarette. He might almost have overheard their conversation.

"Good night, Mr. Fielding," he said, holding out his hand. "Are you staying down here for long?"

"For two days, I believe," Mr. Fielding answered. "My daughter makes our plans."

He spoke very slowly, but without any accent. Nothing in his appearance, except perhaps the fact that he wore a black evening tie, accorded with the popular ideas of the traveling American.

"If you have an hour to spare," Duncombe said, "it would give me a great deal of pleasure if you and your daughter would walk down and have a look over my place. Part of the hall is Elizabethan, and I have some relics which might interest Miss Fielding."

Mr. Fielding removed the cigarette from his mouth.

"I thank you very much, sir," he said. "We are Lord Runtun's guests, and our stay is so short that we could scarcely make any arrangements to visit elsewhere. Glad to have had the pleasure of meeting you all the same."

Duncombe sought out his host.

"Runtun, old chap," he said, "do me a favor. Bring that fellow Fielding and his daughter round to my place before they go."

Lord Runtun laughed heartily.

"Is it a case?" he exclaimed. "And you, our show bachelor, too! Never mind my chaff, old chap. She's a ripping good looking girl, and money enough to buy the country."

"I don't mind your chaff," Duncombe answered. "But will you bring her?"

Lord Runtun looked thoughtful.

"How the dickens can I?" he asked. "We are all shooting at the duke's tomorrow, and I believe they're off on Saturday. You're not in earnest by any chance, are you, George?"

"Damnably!" he answered.

Lord Runtun whistled softly.

"Fielding doesn't shoot," he remarked. "But they're going with us to Beaumont. Shall I drop him a hint? He might stay a day longer just to make a few inquiries about you on the spot, you know."

"Get him to stay a day longer if you can," Duncombe answered, "but don't give me away. The old chap's none too cordial as it is."

"I must talk to him," Runtun said. "Your baronetcy is a thundering sight better than any of these mushroom peerages. He probably doesn't understand that sort of thing. But what about the girl? Old De Roche has been making the running pretty strong, you know."

"We all have to take our chance in that sort of thing," Duncombe said quietly. "I am not afraid of De Roche."

"I'll do what I can for you," Runtun promised. "Good night."

Andrew, who had left an hour or so earlier, was sitting in the library smoking a pipe when his host returned.

"Not gone to bed yet, then?" Duncombe remarked. "Let me make you a whisky and soda, old chap. You look a bit tired."

"Very good of you. I think I will," Andrew answered. "And, George, are you sure that I should not be putting you out at all if I were to stay—say another couple of days—with you?"

Duncombe wheeled round and faced his friend. His reply was not immediate.

"It's nothing," he answered, with a little laugh in which all the elements of mirth were lacking, "nothing at all. A note from Higgs, my head keeper, about some poachers. Confound the fellow!"

Andrew's hand was suddenly upon the sideboard, traveling furtively across its shining surface. Duncombe watched it with a curious sense of fascination. He felt altogether powerless to interfere. He was simply wondering how long it would be before those long, powerful fingers seized upon what they sought. He might even then have swept aside the envelope, but he felt no inclination to do so. The fingers were moving slowly but surely. Finally with a little grab they seized upon it. Then there was another moment of suspense. Slowly the hand was withdrawn. Without a second's warning Duncombe felt himself held in the grip of a giant. Andrew had him by the throat.

"You have lied to me, George!" he cried. "There was a telegram!"

Guaranteed Cure for Constipation

After watching results for sixteen years, during which time many millions of bottles were sold and thousands of letters from users were received, the originators of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the great herb laxative compound, feel safe in guaranteeing it in the various diseases of the stomach, liver and bowels, such as chronic constipation, dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, flatulency, sour stomach, bloated stomach, heartburn, etc. There is an absolute guarantee to refund the purchase price if Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin does not do what is claimed for it.

For sixteen years this remedy has been recommended for stomach, liver and bowel complaints and the fact that each year more and more families are using it proves that it has the merit claimed for it. It is the letters we are constantly receiving proves that it is curing these diseases. Hence the guarantee is justified. Mr. Abbot, of Boynton, L. I., writes: "Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the best laxative tonic on the market because, to use his own words, 'It does all you claim for it and I do not know of another medicine of its kind that does.' Mrs. Williams, of Sidney, Ill., writes that she has used it in her home all her married life and would not keep house without it. 'Thousands of others have written to the same effect. If you have any complaint for which Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is recommended go to your druggist and get a 50-cent or $1 bottle. Take it on the basis that we guarantee satisfaction. You will find it gentle in action and pleasant in taste. It works promptly and efficiently, and unlike purgative waters, salts and cathartic powders, pills, does not grip and leave you feeling weak and torn. It is safe for you and your family to use it regularly when you have call for laxative. It is especially suited to children and weak people because of its gentle action.'

FREE TEST Those willing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can have a free sample bottle sent to them by addressing the company. This offer is to prove that the remedy will do what is claimed and is only good for those who have never taken it. Send for it if you have any symptoms of stomach, liver or bowel disease. ate.

"Andrew," he said, "you know very well that I haven't a pal in the world. I'd sooner have here than you for just as long as you choose to stay, but—give me if I ask you one question. Is it because you want to watch Miss Fielding that you have changed your mind?"

"That has a good deal to do with it, George," Andrew said quietly. "If I left without meeting that young lady again I should be miserable. I want to hear her speak when she does not know that any one is listening."

Duncombe crossed the room and laid his hand upon the other's shoulder.

"Andrew," old fellow," he said. "I can't have it. I can't allow even my best friend to spy upon Miss Fielding. You see—I've come a bit of a cropper. Quick work, I suppose, you'd say. But I'm there all the same."

"Who wants to spy upon Miss Fielding?" Andrew exclaimed hoarsely.

"She can be the daughter of a multi-millionaire or a penniless adventurer for all I care. All I want is to be sure that she isn't Phyllis Poynton."

"You are not yet convinced?"

"No."

There was a moment's silence. Duncombe walked to the window and returned.

"Andrew," he said, "doesn't what I told you just now—make a difference?"

Andrew groaned.

"Of course it would," he answered, "but I'm fool enough to feel the same about Phyllis Poynton."

Duncombe, in the full glow of sensations which seemed to him to give a larger and more wonderful outlook on life, felt his sympathies suddenly awakened. Andrew Pelham, his old chum, sitting there with his huge, disfiguring glasses and bowed head, was surely the prototype of all that was pathetic. He forgot all his small irritation at the other's obstinacy. He remembered only their long years of comradeship and the tragedy which loomed over the life of his chosen friend. Once more his arm rested upon his shoulder.

"I'm a selfish brute, Andrew!" he said. "Stay as long as you please and get this idea out of your brain. I'm trying to get Miss Fielding and her father down here, and if I can manage it anyhow I'll leave you two alone, and you shall talk as long as you like. Come, we'll have a drink together now and a pipe afterward."

He walked across to the sideboard, where the glasses and decanters were arranged. Then for the first time he saw upon the tray awaiting him a telegram. He gave a little exclamation as he tore it open. Andrew looked up.

"What is it, George?" he asked. "A telegram?"

Duncombe stood with his eyes glued upon the oblong strip of paper. A curious palor had crept into his face from underneath the healthy tan of his complexion. Andrew, sightless though he was, seemed to feel the presence in the room of some exciting influence. He rose to his feet and moved softly across to the sideboard.

"Is it a telegram, George?" he whispered hoarsely. "Read it to me. Is it from Spencer?"

Duncombe collected himself with an effort.

"It's nothing," he answered, with a little laugh in which all the elements of mirth were lacking, "nothing at all. A note from Higgs, my head keeper, about some poachers. Confound the fellow!"

Andrew's hand was suddenly upon the sideboard, traveling furtively across its shining surface. Duncombe watched it with a curious sense of fascination. He felt altogether powerless to interfere. He was simply wondering how long it would be before those long, powerful fingers seized upon what they sought. He might even then have swept aside the envelope, but he felt no inclination to do so. The fingers were moving slowly but surely. Finally with a little grab they seized upon it. Then there was another moment of suspense. Slowly the hand was withdrawn. Without a second's warning Duncombe felt himself held in the grip of a giant. Andrew had him by the throat.

WORK PROGRESSES ON GLASS PLANT

One of Paducah's New and Unique Enterprises

Interesting Process By Which Bottles Are Made From Sand in Mechanicsburg.

MAY INCREASE ITS CAPACITY.

Well-informed local business men say that the best signs of a growing city life in Paducah, are the new and more complex financial and industrial institutions being established in the city, and one of the most interesting of these is the glass plant. Work on the plant is moving ahead rapidly and actual operation is expected before the first half of the year comes to a close.

The erection of the building has been the least part of the undertaking. Inside the buildings the complex mechanism for converting the sand into a liquid and the facilities for cooling and finishing the bottles, have required extensive excavations as well as costly materials. The heat of the molten sand is frightful and the fiery liquid moves around the ground from building to building through tunnels, nothing being visible in the process from the feeding end to the other end where the finished product is turned out. On the outside of the main building, is a fuel gas producer which furnishes all the heat used in the plant. Two ear loads of coal are placed in the top of this heater and it is slowly fed through the producer being converted into fuel gas. Tunnels carry the fuel gas to the sand converting it into a liquid.

Twenty-four blowers stand at openings in the subterranean furnace and lift up the molten sand on their tubes. A helper has a mold ready and the glass is blown into this mold turning out bottles according to its size. The chamber that holds the liquor sand is built of the finest brick and large blocks specially made for standing the heat. It is all covered to prevent accidents and the gas is non-explosive. The bottle molds cost from $12 to $30 each.

Mr. Finley, the owner of the plant, has arranged its construction so that the capacity may be increased fifty per cent more than that stipulated in his agreement in bringing the plant to this city. In the short period of ten days a much more coherent idea of the processes can be gotten than at the present. The excavations inside the building have been made and the foundations of the tunnels and chambers have been laid showing vaguely the process of manufacturing.

GOOD JUDGEMENT Is the essential characteristic of men and women. Invaluable to good business men and necessary to housewives. A woman shows good judgment when she buys White's Cream Vermifuge for her baby. The best worm medicine ever offered to mothers. Many indeed are the sensible mothers who write expressing their gratitude for the good health of their children, which they owe to the use of White's Cream Vermifuge. Sold by all druggists.

Stead and His Baggage. Because of his ignorance of American methods of checking baggage Williams T. Stead was compelled to dine with the Russian ambassador, Baron Rosen in his traveling clothes. When Mr. and Mrs. Stead left New York to come to Washington, Dr. Albert Shaw, who accompanied them, attended to the checking of their baggage. Dr. Shaw handed the paper checks to Mr. Stead.

"If you'll give me your checks I'll attend to your baggage," said Dr. Shaw when the party left the train this morning.

"What checks?" Mr. Stead asked in amazement.

"Those paper tags I gave you in New York after I checked your trunks," Dr. Shaw said.

"But I've thrown them away, I did not know they were of any value."

"Well, you're in a pretty fix," Dr. Shaw said. "Now you won't be able to get your evening clothes."

Dr. Shaw saw the railroad officials and discussed indemnifying bonds, but did not get the trunks until nearly midnight.—Washington Dispatch.

JUST BECAUSE Your cough is only in the throat and does not trouble you now don't think that it needs no attention. When it has not had much of a start is the time to check it. The slightest cough easily leads to Pneumonia, Bronchitis and Consumption. A bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will cure that cough. The price puts it within reach of all.

Had Him Trained. Senator Kittredge, of South Dakota, wanted some technical information from the war department and asked Secretary Taft for it.

He waited for a week and nothing came. Then one morning he dropped in to see Mr. Taft and remind him of it.

"Why," exclaimed Taft in great surprise, "haven't you had that yet?"

"No."

Taft pushed a button and his personal messenger, a negro who had been on the door of the secretary of war for years, came in.

"Did you see that pile of books I had here on the corner of my desk?" asked the secretary very sternly.

"Yes, sir."

"Did you wrap them up and address them to Senator Kittredge, as I told you?"

"Yes, sir."

"And mail them?"

"Yes, sir."

"You may go," said the secretary, and then turning to the senator: "Now, senator, you see you will get the books all right, don't you?"

"Certainly," replied Kittredge.

"Well, you won't," said Taft, "for

Dandelion

A Simple Remedy For Liver Trouble and Biliusness.
Guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drug Act, June 30, 1905. Serial Number 3517.

The liver is a wonderful organ, always at work filtering, purifying and manufacturing ingredients necessary to life. It is the central laboratory of the body. It plays the part of a natural poison antidote. The poison contained in the decomposing food and waste of the body are arrested by it and rendered harmless. The liver is the seat of manufacture of bile, a fluid that keeps sweet the intestine and aids to digest food. Healthy bile is an antiseptic and when deficient or absent the contents of the bowels become putrid and full of poisonous matter. You can always keep your liver in a healthy condition by using Dr. Edwards' Compound Dandelion Tablets or Pills. They act directly upon the liver and produce a healthy flow of bile.

Towns With Troubles.

London's trouble is her fog.
Tokyo's trouble is earthquakes.
In her worst 200,000 residents were killed.

Calcutta's trouble is cholera, and the bubonic plague is the trouble of Bombay. Each city pays to her trouble an annual tribute of 9,000 souls.

Madrid's trouble is the solano, a summer wind from the southeast. It is exceedingly hot, and is accompanied by blinding, choking clouds of dust, so that, notwithstanding a temperature of 105 or 110 degrees, all windows must be closed.

The mistral is the trouble of Marseilles—an east wind that increases the city's death rate 50 per cent.

SIGNIFICANT IS STERNBERG'S ACT

May be Going Home on Purely Diplomatic Mission

Realignment of World Powers Possible on Account of Hague Conference.

DISARMAMENT TO THE FORE.

Washington, D. C., April 24.—An evening paper says:

"A most important revelation in connection with Baron Sternberg, German ambassador, and his visit to Germany at this time has been made by a diplomat in this city. He told a reporter that, although the purpose of this vacation—a very brief one, by the way—is ostensibly to take a rest in his own country, in reality it is concerned with the present instability of German international politics. It was even said that Baron Sternberg was the bearer of an important message to Emperor William from President Roosevelt and that this action was being hidden by the pretext of a vacation of his estates, which, according to the ambassador himself, is to last only a few weeks."

In connection with the German ambassador's departure, it is hinted that two other ambassadors may find it necessary to postpone or rearrange their plans for the late spring and summer. These ambassadors are Barons Des Planches and M. Jesserand. It turned out that the cause of this diplomatic turmoil is the disarmament question at The Hague, as proposed by England, and what may happen in case Germany and Austria will insist on not discussing the proposal. This question concerns the United States, because it is believed—and the president's remarks lately seem to confirm this view of it—that if the powers persist in maintaining their decisive stand it will cause a realignment of nations and a serious rupture will occur between this country and Germany. It is with these possibilities in view that the Italian and French ambassadors will endeavor to lay before their respective governments special reports containing suggestions.

According to the informant, it has at last been decided that it will be impossible to avoid a realignment of the powers if Italy will decide to remain in the triple alliance after 1909, when the terms of the present agreement will expire. In saying this the diplomat referred to the chances that are likely to occur in the near future between England and Germany and France and Germany. The United States government so far has been in sympathy with France and England more than with Germany. Now, if Italy will persist in taking sides with Austria and Germany at The Hague conference, it was stated, it will cause a halt in the sympathies between herself and England and France and also this country. It was pointed out that Italy cannot afford to ally herself by an agreement that will benefit only Austria and Germany, as she herself will lose the strength brought by ties of friendship with the other nations.

The diplomats concerned are as tight as clams, and will not reply to categorical questions propounded them, which is regarded as corroborating the substance of the above revelations.

More Money is Needed to Prosecute Suits to Test Gerrymander of State

The following appeal is made by the legislative committee in charge of the work of testing the constitutionality of gerrymanders in Kentucky to the citizens of western Kentucky:

"The recent decision of the court of appeals, declaring unconstitutional the redistricting act passed at the 1906 session of the legislature, has greatly encouraged and enthused the Republicans of Kentucky in the fight to elect their entire state ticket this fall. This great victory demonstrated the fact, that the courts are at last disposed to give us justice, but the fight for equal representation is by no means at an end. Suits are still pending which involve the senatorial and congressional apportionment acts and we must take advantage of the recent decision to push these cases to a successful conclusion."

"This work cannot continue successfully without more funds and we are depending entirely on voluntary contributions from the Republicans of the state."

"Your committee having this litigation in charge is cheerfully giving its service without pay and the attorneys have worked faithfully without receiving even so much as their necessary traveling expenses. The lawyers should certainly be paid a reasonable fee, but unless you come to our relief this cannot be done. The total contributions to date have not been enough to pay the court cost."
